IOS Press Author Copyright Agreement

License to Publish (as in <http://www.iospress.nl/authco/copyright.html>)

In order to publish your article we need your agreement. Please take a moment to read the terms of this license.

By submitting your article to one of our books or journals (henceforth 'publications'), you and all co-authors of your submission agree to the terms of this license. You do not need to fill out a copyright form for confirmation.

By submitting your article to one of our publications you grant us (the publisher) the exclusive right to both reproduce and/or distribute your article (including the abstract) throughout the world in electronic, printed or any other medium, and to authorize others (including Reproduction Rights Organizations such as the Copyright Licensing Agency and the Copyright Clearance Center, and other document distributors) to do the same. You agree that we may publish your article, and that we may sell or distribute it, on its own, or with other related material.

By submitting your article for publication to one of our publications, you promise that the article is your original work, has not previously been published, and is not currently under consideration by another publication. You also promise that the article does not, to the best of your knowledge, contain anything that is libellous, illegal or infringes anyone's copyright or other rights. If the article contains material that is someone else's copyright, you promise that you have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to use the material and that the material is clearly identified and acknowledged in the text.

We promise that we will respect your rights as the author(s). That is, we will make sure that your name(s) is/are always clearly associated with the article and, while you do allow us to make necessary editorial changes, we will not make any substantial alterations to your article without consulting you.

Copyright remains yours, and we will acknowledge this in the copyright line that appears on your article. You also retain the right to use your own article (provided you acknowledge the published original in standard bibliographic citation form) in the following ways, as long as you do not sell it in ways that would conflict directly with our efforts to disseminate it. 1. You are free to use your article for internal, educational or other purposes of your own institution or company; 2. you may use the article, in whole or in part, as the basis for your own further publications or spoken presentations; 3. you may mount the final version of your article as published by IOS Press on your own, your institution's, company's or funding agency's website. For this last option, you can order the final published version of your article. This service costs €100 and you need to order this with a special form. We will provide you with the full text PDF file.

By submitting your article for publication as a chapter of the book "Bridging the socio-technical gap in DSS - Challenges for the next decade", IOS Press, Amsterdam, NL, you confirm that you read the IOS Press license to publish and you agree that the original unpaginated version of the manuscript can be made available online at the archive of the IFIP WG 8.3 website. IFIP WG 8.3 will make sure that your name(s) is/are always clearly associated with the article.

I herein declare that I agree with the DSS 2010 license to publish
